Theme: "Be Guided by the Spirit"

In the Holy Scriptures today, the message of God to those who profess their faith, is to be guided by the Holy Spirit. Many people find it difficult to let go of being in control, rather than allowing the Holy Spirit to shape their calling, their moral and spiritual response to life. In the first reading, Elisha is called to be a great prophet but briefly hesitates ... In the second reading, St Paul reminds the people of Galatia to resist the temptation to be self-indulgent and give into violence. In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus calls on people to become his disciples but many look for an excuse not to follow Him; they choose not to be guided by the Holy Spirit. However, thankfully there is one who boldly declares, 'I will follow you wherever you go' – an enlightened person of true faith.

Reflection: 'The Crossroads of the Spirit' by St Gregory of Nyssa

"It is the task of the hands to find food for the body's necessities, and the task of the mouth to give service to the word. This particular order is ours so that we can emit sounds and we have another organ to receive them. The two activities are not muddled up, every organ carries its own specific function without disturbing the one next to it. Imagine a big city welcoming its visitors by many different gates. Not everyone goes to the same part. Some go to the market, some to their homes, some to the narrow alleyways. Something similar takes place in the city of the spirit, the city within us. The door of the various senses is filled with many things. The spirit examines these, it distinguishes between them and sorts them out ... this is what happens in the crossroads of the spirit".

SHARED PARISH NEWS

Summertime is Upon Us - This is traditionally the time of year when people take a rest in whatever way they can. The schools are off, parish life slows down to a different pace and we have perhaps more of a chance to recreate ourselves, catch up with old friends and enjoy the beautiful open spaces of Scotland and further afield. Various economic, logistical and health related challenges will have a bearing on what is made possible. We hope and pray that we can help one another to experience some form of rest and recuperation. God bless you all!

Mental Health Sunday

This Sunday we are reminded of all those who are affected by mental health issues, whether that be autism, Alzheimer's, dementia, depression, anxiety or bipolar. Mental health is the invisible burden on the human psyche that is real and present but not always obvious to the human eye. It can have a major effect on home life, working life, marriage, family, social life and indeed parish life, interconnected with education. We pray for all those who assist those in mental health related work. We pray for the support of the carers including family and volunteers. We recognise that our NHS psychiatric wards are full, and resources are urgently needed. May our faith in God help to relieve suffering.

Welcome to Fr Younis Pervez

Fr Younis is an old friend of our parishes and visited us several times before the Covid pandemic. He is a priest of the Diocese of Faisalabad in Pakistan, where he has been working tirelessly without a break for the last 4 years. He is the rector of the Seminary, Diocesan treasurer, parish pastoral worker, looking after the poor, the orphans, and the marginalised. He is here for a rest and we are delighted to make him welcome. Since the pandemic broke, we have been supporting projects in his remit for which he is really grateful. Alex and Mary Hughes went out to see him in November 2019. They will be so happy to see him as they are both sick now.

Thank You (i) Thank you to Donna Cameron who came from Stanton Health Care, she has sent her sincere thanks to you all and ask to keep in touch via email – donna.cameron@stantonscotland.org

These funds have been sent on to where they are urgently needed, as William More mentioned, there are many urgent needs just now. THANK YOU for all your generosity.

(iii) To Jason Irvine for the donation of flagstones for the church grounds. Greatly appreciated.

'Peter's Pence' Collection Today

Today, Sunday, the second collection goes to 'Peter's Pence'. This is an annual collection taken all over the world to assist the Holy Father, Pope Francis, in his work at the Holy Office in Rome. The other half of it goes to whatever are his chosen charitable causes at this time. As you know, there are many appeals for help just now. Thank you for your enormous kindness.

Scottish Bishop's Conference

Statement on Catholic Devotion to the Holy Eucharist

A 'Bishops Letter' was published too late to go out with other information at last Sunday's Feast of Corpus Christi. Copies of the letter are available at the back of the Church. The bishops are emphasising how important Holy Communion is to the life of the Catholic faithful and how we should cherish and enhance the awareness of God's greatest gift to us.

Canon John Agnew

The Canon is very grateful for all the prayers, support and kindness while he has been unwell recently. We pray for him and Lesley, his housekeeper.

The Teaching of the Catechism – Para 1655 – 'The Domestic Church' (Married Life)

'Christ chose to be born and grow up in the bosom of the Holy Family of Joseph and Mary. The Church is nothing other than "The Family of God". From the beginning, the core of the Church was often constituted by those who had become believers together with their household. When they were converted, they desired that their whole household should also be saved. These families who became believers were islands of Christian life in an unbelieving world'. Why not during the summer holidays take the chance to enjoy reading some of the Church teaching? Just go to the Vatican website.

Part of the inner circle of apostles, others being James and John. Highly respected by the apostles and his witness to the resurrected Jesus. Martyred by Emperor Nero in AD64. Paul, originally called Saul, was a tent maker from Tarsus, of Jewish parents and of the pharisees. Trained to be a scribe, he approved early on of the persecution of the Christians.
